

BUSCH small parts assortment

for spindle extensions

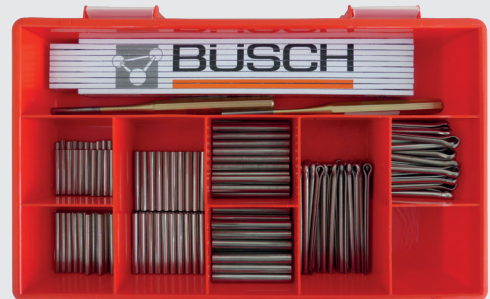

Original stainless steel fasteners - for quick and easy mounting use

The practical and handy assortment box is a must-have for every practitioner when mounting extensions. Especially under time pressure or in difficult weather conditions, small parts in particular can quickly get lost during assembly.

The box is equipped with standardised stainless steel split pins and grooved pins for every type of fitting (penstocks, ball valves, butterfly valves). Frequently used pin sizes can also be ordered as refill packs. Pin punches are another component of the assortment box for easy and quick handling.
